Perseverance

Once there was an evil King whose subjects stood against him and declared their independence.

The King grew angry and sent his armies to fight the subjects. The subjects were terrified of the King's might, and some even began to doubt and undermine those who were fighting for their freedom, but many stood tall. Those who stood selected one soldier to rally their own armies and fight the King.

The soldier was honored but daunted by the task that now lay at his feet. The soldier did what he could but was only able to muster a small and untrained force in comparison with the King's mighty army. The soldier lost many battles at first, and when winter came, only two thousand people remained in his own army. The subjects began to lose faith in the soldier, and so too did the forces he gathered. But in the winter camp, where his soldiers grew hungry and weary in the bitter cold, he saw opportunity.

The soldier began to train his army. He taught them tactics and formations and his army became confident in their skills as they never had before. More importantly, he taught them to work as a team. Where once there were hopeless faces and weariness, there was now laughter and stories of what the future could be. When spring came, the man led his newly trained army out of the camp and won every battle that followed.

Soon after, the King was forced back to his own land far away, and the subjects rejoiced. The now free subjects, inspired by the leadership of the soldier, elected him their first free leader.

Lessons from Valley Forge:

That was the inspiring story of George Washington. As you can see, he had great determination and never gave up, which led to a succession of victories over the British, and eventually winning the American Revolution.

“

Although 2020 tremendously impacted people around the world in so many different ways, 2021 brings new hope and opportunities for everyone.

George Washington's story gives us important lessons that we can all learn from. As a great leader, he took advantage of timing; he uplifted his team and taught them the necessary skills to face the endeavor; he encouraged the importance of coordinated teamwork; and possessed the determination to never give up despite the circumstances appearing hopeless.

Applying these principles to your own business and teams will lead to success.

Although 2020 tremendously impacted people around the world in so many different ways, 2021 brings new hope and opportunities for everyone. In fact, with the Spring season here, it's time to forge ahead with transformation and renewal. Now is the perfect time to re-spark your business, teams and life!

Like George Washington, take the time to understand your teams; be aware of their needs, and strengthen them through skills, inspiration and commitment. This automatically leads to team motivation and potential results for all. The little successes you all gain will eventually lead to big success, just as George Washington led his army to victory.

Terri Peterson

Sparkle Achiever Terri Peterson recently visited us at our Sparkle Lounge in Las Vegas, Nevada to sit down for an interview about everything Club Sparkle! Terri is a retired pharmacist and now uses her expertise as a breath coach. “I got involved with Club Sparkle in early 2019, and I didn’t want to be left out,” she told us during her interview. “I could feel the sense of community and the vibe of everybody working together around these products, and there are no other products like these!”

Terri, with all her pharmacological experience, has encountered many different vitamin and mineral supplements, but still insists she has never seen anything like Club Sparkle or ION5. Terri is so confident in the positive benefits of ION5 that she has begun implementing ION5 in her work as a breath coach! “The first time I gave a few drops [of ION5] to a client, they started breathing better and their diaphragm opened up, and it was something I hadn’t expected, so I give each of my clients about two or three drops of the ION5.”

Terri noticed that the amazing health benefits of ION5 did not stop there. Terri continued with a story about a client whose son had breathing issues which she believes ION5 helped with: “When we first started with Sparkle, we would hold these little parties, and there was my hair stylist with her seven-year-old son. He took a little bit of the Nectura and one drop of ION5, and he got up and did two loops around the living room, and he goes ‘oh Mom, I can breathe!’ and then he started crying. She went ‘what’s wrong?’ and he said ‘don’t worry mom, they’re happy tears! I can breathe!’... It is so important that humanity has this gift, because these products are a gift to humanity.”

DR. DANIEL HECKER

Dr. Hecker grew up in Northern Illinois and after graduating high school, he joined the US Navy Seals and spent most of his time on the east coast and deployed overseas. After serving in the Navy for over 5 years, he discovered a new and profound meaning to self-discipline and hard work, which led him to succeed in premedical course work at the Northern Illinois University, and in June 2004, he received his degree from Palmer College of Chiropractic in Davenport Iowa. In 2012, Dr. Hecker opened Gentle Pain Care Centers in Las Vegas, Nevada where he met Michelle Lindsey, who at the time worked for him as his Office Manager. Michelle introduced him to Club Sparkle.

Dr. Hecker quickly discovered all the great benefits that Sparkle Products offer to the human body. As an advocate of chiropractic and healthy living, it was very natural for Dr. Hecker to introduce the Club Sparkle and our innovative products to his friends, family and especially his patients.

In 2019, Dr. Hecker became part of our Sparkle Advisory Council and occasionally appears as a special Guest Speaker at our Events, where he shares his knowledge in nutrition and the role it and Club Sparkle products has on healthy living.

"In today's day and age, we find that a lot of people don't have the time to make the healthy drinks such as smoothies. Therefore, creating an unhealthy lifestyle that gets passed down to generations after generations. It's my intention to share the need for nutrient rich foods for a healthy life. With Club Sparkle Products, what you get are nutrient-rich supplements that you can easily implement into your daily routine. What's more exciting is that you get the building blocks that the body needs to be healthy and energetic all while having the opportunity to build residual income like many of my patients have achieved."
